

June 2007 ~ Vol. 1, Issue 2

Greetings, Friends!

I can hardly believe its June already. Summer is here, although I'm still expecting it to be spring when I open my back door. The last couple of months have been filled with cardboard boxes, bubble wrap and address change requests. But our major move is over (finally) and we are settling into our new home, closer to family and with the kind of view we've always dreamed of.

All the preview activity for TOUCH OF TEXAS is making its way into cyberspace. If you "Google" my name, you'll find the book on Amazon-U.S., Amazon-Germany, Fantastic Fiction-UK, and listed with Fresh Fiction, FreshFiction.com/TracyGarrett. And you now can pre-order TOUCH OF TEXAS at Amazon.com.

All these 'firsts' are so exciting. First book, first time in Germany, first mention on The Good, The Bad and The Unread, a romance reader blog...Heady stuff.

Speaking of 'firsts,' be sure to visit Fresh Fiction and sign up for my very first contest: FreshFiction.com/TracyGarrettContest. One lucky winner will receive a signed book cover, a yummy treat and a "touch of Texas" - a little something that will make you think of Texas every time you see it. Fresh Fiction is a great source of information about upcoming book releases and authors. Just be warned: it can be habit-forming.

I'm starting to schedule book signings following the release of TOUCH OF TEXAS. If you have a local bookstore that might be interested in having me visit, please email me with the book store name and address. And if you know the buyer, ask her/him to preorder TOUCH OF TEXAS so they'll be sure to have it on the shelves October 2.

That's all for now. Feel free to share this newsletter with your friends, and invite them to visit my website and sign up to receive future newsletters.

See you next month!

Tracy
