

Tracy Garrett

March 2008 ~ Vol.2, Issue 3

March is "marching" in!

At least I hope it is. Mother Nature has certainly made my first winter back in the Midwest memorable. Every week another ice storm, followed by snow and cold temps. Other places have it worse, so I'm trying not to complain – too much.

I got the cover for Touched by Love, and it is fabulous! Drop by my website, www.tracygarrett.com and click on BOOKS to take a peak.

This past weekend I participated in a two-day conference at my alma mater, Illinois Wesleyan University, in Bloomington. The focus of the conference was women supporting women. Dozens of alums gave of their time and expertise to mentor young women currently attending the University. I was honored to be among the presenters. I shared a little of what it was like to change my career from musician to corporate professional to writer. Three others on the panel spoke on their experiences changing careers and changing locations, while trying to maintain our sanity! The weekend was wonderful and uplifting, and I'm looking forward to next year.
