Sitting on Water

It's beginning to feel like fall here. A little color in the leaves, cooler nights, damp fog-shrouded mornings. I love it.

Last week I took our puppy, Wrigs, into the lake for the first time. True to his parentage, he took right to the water, walking around the rocky bottom, snapping at the waves, his tail wagging like fury the entire time. Then he did the funniest thing I've seen in a while: he tried to sit on the water.

He lowered himself slowly toward the water, obviously waiting for the shiny surface to hold him up. Imagine his consternation when he just kept sinking. I still laugh just thinking about it.

The November 4 release of Touched by Love is just around the corner. Mark your calendars and plan a visit to your local bookseller—and take your friends, too.

My booksigning calendar is beginning to fill up. If I'm in your area, be sure to stop by and say hello!
