October 2007 ~ Vol. 1, Issue 6

TOUCH OF TEXAS hit the shelves on October 2 and the response has been wonderful! Thank you so much, all of you who bought the book. I'll be posting the pictures of my first book signings, as well as the ones you've sent me, this week. Stop by and take a look.

There's still time to enter my "Where I spotted Touch of Texas" contest. Just take a photo of yourself with the book and email the photo to me at tracy@tracygarrett.com, along with the name of the store and the town where you found it. I'll post the pictures on my website and, at the end of October, one lucky photographer will WIN a special TOUCH OF TEXAS Treasure Chest.

The reviews for TOUCH OF TEXAS are terrific. To read all the reviews, visit www.tracygarrett.com. They're on the homepage.

My first two book signings were so much fun. At the Barnes & Noble in North Richland Hills, Texas, I sold all but one book. And that evening, in Dallas, I sold out! I loved seeing so many friends there.

*"Garrett's debut is a tender story about two people who don't belong anywhere and find out that belonging to each other is all they need. The characters' growth and strong secondary characters who move the story along add to this well-written entertaining western."
