

Tracy Garrett

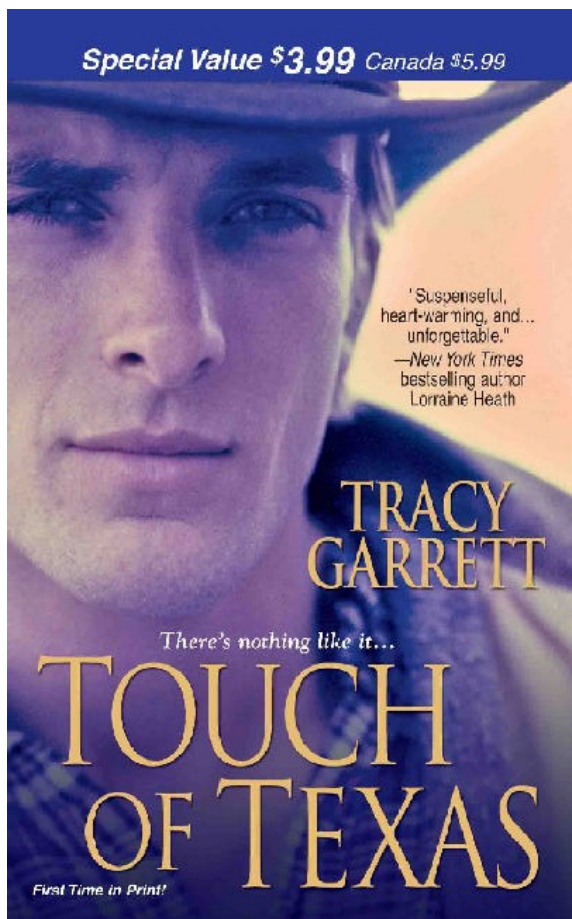

March 2007 ~ Vol. 1, Issue 1

This is it: my first official newsletter! It feels a little odd – and wonderful – to be writing this.

TOUCH OF TEXAS, my first published novel, is only seven months away from hitting the shelves. Mark your calendars for October 2, 2007, and tell all your friends! For an author, selling lots of books right after release is critical for getting the next one on the shelves for you to read, and I'll take all the help I can get.

I'm so fortunate to have a great cover for TOUCH OF TEXAS. The title and my name are in embossed gold. It is gorgeous! In case you haven't seen it...

The quote on the cover is from New York Times Bestselling Author, Lorraine Heath. Only part of the quote is printed on the cover. Here is the entire quote:

"Suspenseful, heart-warming and sensual, with unexpected twists and an unforgettable cast of characters, Touch of Texas is captivating. Tracy Garrett is an exciting new voice in the world of romance."

There's something new on my website. Romance author and dear friend, Jane Graves, (www.janegraves.com) created a teaser for TOUCH OF TEXAS. It will give you a hint of what's inside the cover of my book. Go to www.tracygarrett.com, scroll down about halfway to the gray version of my cover and click on the PLAY button. Let me know what you think.

That's all I have room for this time. Please forward this newsletter to all your friends, and invite them to visit my website and sign up to receive future newsletters.

See you next month!

Tracy
